Cuba shall be free, Mr. McKinley has said so and that settles it.

It is said of ex-Gov. Boies, of Iowa, that he has deserted the free silver cause.

MAJOR CARRINGTON, of Hopkinsville, will not after the second district electoralists.

Nice, clean outside, how delightful they are to look upon. Breckenridge county is full of them.

Now the speculators want to make a corner on the wheat. If the farmers will set wide they will not let their wheat go for nothing.

Times are getting better, we feel it and the country feels it, and the only thing to do now, is to go out and meet them and bid them welcome.

It seems that there is about to be a new party formed in Garard county, Ky., called the Free Turnpike party. They have called a convention to nominate a candidate.

FARMERS are not talking politics, but giving their attention to tobacco, wheat, corn and things about the farm. They are deeply interested in farm work and the how of doing it.

CHARLES A. DARRA, editor of the New York Sun, is reported as being critically ill. Mr. Darrar is one of the greatest newspaper men in this country, and has been so recognized for many years.

Gov. BRADLEY seems to be having a tough time with the administration at Washington. He is quite sensible of the fact that he doesn't get the recognition due a Republican Governor of a great State.

In a general way there is an improvement in business. This must be apparent to any unprejudiced thinking mind. It is not from what the cause is, or from what source the things come, but it is for us to be honest about it.

Our Washington correspondent gives an outline of the President's policy in regard to Cuba. It is conservative and ought to meet the approval of all who want the right thing done in the settlement of a very complicated affair.

There are now on file, it is said, at the White House and the leading departments 105,100 written applications for office and that they are still coming in at the rate of 600 a day. What a mania we Americans have for office. It is said to be contemplating.

Here are our congratulations to our old friend, Bob Liberton, who is bordering on the shady side of 60. It is a boy, a handsome, fine looking gentleman, and on the evening of June 24, a boy baby is the grandest addition ever made to a household.

This more we travel over Breckenridge county, the more in love we are with it and the prouder are we that she is our native county. Grand old Breckenridge, the best county of them all. Her farmers are the sweetest, her women the prettiest and best, and her men the grandest. Who would not live in old Breckenridge!

The Republican candidates are getting a move on them. They are making a public gathering of any sort. All of them are making it a point now, to get out and hustle. All of this taking place so long before the November election is a pretty good sign that things are not so encouraging for them as they would like for them to be.

What can they do to the Republicans always make a fusion with the sound money Democrats. It they can't capture the office alone they are always ready to make a deal. Yet they are always ready to outdo the Republicans for the very thing they have been practicing for years. The Republican plotters will wear watching.

"My wife" is eminently correct and the proper words to use and we are glad our Breckenridge correspondent has called our attention to them. There are lots of men in this world who would give all they possess and more, just to have the pleasure of saying "my wife" ones. A good wife is worth more than all the gold and silver in this world.

Mr. C. W. BROWN is mentioned as a probable candidate for Congress in the second district. Mr. Brown is just the kind of material that we want in Congress. He is a thorough business man, successful in his own private affairs, honest, conscientious, conservative and thoroughly in touch with the people. The News doesn't know of any other Congressional candidates in this State. We would like to see the House made up of just such men.

W. S. STORRETT HAS NO OPPONENTS. (From the Hancock Chronicle.)

W. S. Storrett, Republican candidate for the State Senate from this district, returned Wednesday from Breckenridge county. Mr. Storrett has no opposition from the nomination of any other party in all three of the counties pledged to him. He is said to be exceptionally strong with his party. Mr. Storrett is a peculiarly astute politician, a leader of well known ability, and would probably make a stronger man than any other Republican. This paper does not agree with him politically, but if we are to be represented by a Republican, he has no better a chance as any of them.

The wedding party was very small, only a few special friends of the couple being present. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents.

There are several good crops of wheat in Breckenridge. The crops are looking well. When these farmers get more of their attention to raising grain and stock, they will find that they can succeed better. For the last fifty years they have thought they could not raise grain and stock, but they are giving more attention to grain and stock.

Rev. Galloway, pastor of the Methodist church at Paducah, was here Monday, and presented a petition to the County court asking for a vote on the local option question in that district. Mr. Galloway feels sure that it will carry as they have voted in the past for many years. The vote will be taken on the 18th of September.

It is believed to be one of the finest places for a home in this county, which it undoubtedly is. Mr. Beard has spent considerable money to make it a home, and he has a fine view of the river and the property made very valuable.

Twenty-five years ago Clifton Mills was one of the best business places in this county. That, however, was before the days of railroads and roller flouring mills here. There was a large crowd gathered in there last Friday at 4 o'clock, and some of the old residents said they had never seen a crowd like that. They were there to see the water mill in the slide, and the old water mill in the slide, and the old water mill in the slide. They were there to see the water mill in the slide, and the old water mill in the slide, and the old water mill in the slide.

Senator Walcott might as well sell for some ill effects that he has passed. The currency question is "no go" till the Commissioners are satisfied how the tariff will affect their country across the big pond. Our commissioners cannot accomplish much 'till the bill of exchange is in the country and his loss will be great to the public.

We are glad to see Mr. Charles Bryant's spirit of enterprise. He is leaving the room next to Newell & Gough nearly fixed for the post-office department. He is reported to be going to New York to look for the post-office department. He is reported to be going to New York to look for the post-office department. He is reported to be going to New York to look for the post-office department.

Newport society has decided that the Mrs. J. H. Gough, who is a member of the high school position is that she is too stout. Mrs. Oliver R. Bice failed to have absolute queenship because of is starved blood. It shows itself in pale cheeks, white lips, weak digestion, no appetite, exhaustion, lack of nerve force, soft muscles, and, chief of all, weak muscles. Your doctor calls it Anemia. He will tell you that the weakening weather of summer often brings it on.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, will make poor blood rich. It is a food for over-taxed and weak digestion, so prepared that it can easily be taken in summer when Cod-liver Oil or even ordinary foods might repel.
